Product Description

Take better productivity on-the-go with the ViewSonic® VA1653 15.6” portable monitor.

Designed for business travelers, remote professionals, and digital nomads, this ultra-slim, lightweight monitor helps double your screen space and add greater efficiency to your workflow. The VA1653’s Full HD 1080p anti-glare display delivers crisp, vibrant visuals for comfortable viewing, even in bright environments. With USB-C connectivity, users can significantly streamline their setup and cut out the cable clutter as they enjoy video, data, audio and power over a single cable. For added flexibility, a mini HDMI port allows connection with a wider range of devices including laptops, tablets and more. Plus, with an ultra-portable design that measures less than an inch thick and weighs under two pounds, the VA1653 slips effortlessly into bags, briefcases and backpacks. Whether you're in a coffee shop, airport lounge, or co-working space, get set up with a fully functional workstation in seconds. Stay productive, stay mobile, and work smarter with the VA1653.
